

WEBINAR SERIES AGENDA

Strengthening regional collaboration and cooperation through higher education programs - Afghanistan & Thailand

The role of higher education institutions in increasing access to education and training, collaborative learning, and multi-stakeholder engagement in Afghanistan

Welcome & Introductions | 10 min

Dr. Faiz Shah, Executive Director of Yunus Center AIT
Dr. Kelly Franklin, Director of Sustainable Smiles
Recorded welcome from Professor Muhammad Yunus

Date: 11 April 2023
Time: 9.00-10:30am New York
5:30-7:00pm Kabul
8:00-9:30pm Bangkok

Moderator: Ms. Aoife Franklyn,
Environmental Consultant

Speakers | 30 min

Dr. Fred Hayward, Retired Senior Higher Education Consultant, University of Massachusetts Amherst

Dr. Habiba Sarabi, Former Negotiator, Provincial Governor, and Minister of Women's Affairs, Islamic Republic of Afghanistan

Dr. Abas Basir, Former Minister of Higher Education, Islamic Republic of Afghanistan and Former Director General, South Asia Co-operative Environment Programme

Notes

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Dialogue Session with Participants | 40 min

- Open question session to speakers
- Q to participants: How can the international community help strengthen and augment education efforts for Afghan students?
- Q to participants: What role can social business and entrepreneurship play in fostering social action and partnerships in Afghanistan?

Closing statement | 10 min

Dialogue Summary

Open to the floor if you are interested in supporting or being involved with the program

the Hollings Center for international dialogue

Yunus
Center
AIT

